

Notes:

- No additional logos can be used (USCSOM on left; Prisma Health on right).
- Flyers must be approved by the CME office prior to distribution.
- Flyers should be submitted at least one week prior to activity to receive CME attendance code.
- Text sizes may be reduced and/or orientation changed to landscape to make flyer one page.
- Yellow highlighted information is for informational purposes – should be removed from final flyer.

[Series Name]
sponsored by [department name] (optional)

[Activity Title] (optional)
[Activity Date]
[Activity Location]
[Activity Time (start and end)]

[Speaker Name, Title/Credentials] (do not include any speaker information/disclosure if not applicable)

Speaker disclosure:

No COI: - [insert speaker name], speaker/faculty for this educational event, has no relevant financial relationship(s) with ineligible companies to disclose.

OR

With COI: (once resolved by CME office) [insert speaker name here] speaker/faculty for this educational event, has the following financial relationships [list financial relationships here].

All of the relevant financial relationships listed for [insert speaker name here] have been mitigated.

In this box you may include your cases, articles, etc. pertinent to your activity.

Target Audience: [insert activity target audience information]

Educational Objectives: [insert activity educational objectives]

Disclosures: Speakers, presenters, and attendees, of this educational event, have no relevant financial relationship(s) with ineligible companies to disclose. Planning Committee members, [list planning committee members here], of this educational activity, have no relevant financial relationship(s) with ineligible companies to disclose. There is no commercial support for this activity.

Accreditation: The University of South Carolina School of Medicine-Prisma Health-Midlands Continuing Medical Education (USCSOM-PHM CME) Organization is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

Credit Designation: The USCSOM-PHM CME Organization designates this live activity for a maximum of # of credit hours – provided by the CME office AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)TM. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.