

At any time during the process, the Grant In Aid Review Committee, the GME and Research Committee, the Department of Medical Education, and/or the Office of Research Services may request additional information.

Progress reports will continue annually until a final report is received. Projects must be completed within two years but may request one no-cost extension of up to one year extending the project to a maximum of three years.